CONTINUING EDUCATION CONFERENCE, March 13 and 14

THEME: *Claiming our Prophetic Voices:
CPE as Social Reconstruction

LEADERS: The Rev. Dr. Kevin Burke (The Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley)

The Rev. Dr. Edward Wheeler (Christian Theological Seminary, Indianapolis)

MODERATOR: Cristina Stevens (CPE Supervisor, Baptist, Pensacola, FL)

Peter Keese, Chair of Annual Conference Committee, wrote: "Two theological educators will dialogue about the processes of theological education, theological reflection, and engaging the social issues which provide the content for that reflective education. Our concern is not so much to hear comments on specific social or justice issues. We are looking for an emphasis on reclaiming the experiential, action-reflection method which uses the actual experiences of people as the living human documents from which we can learn about and with whom we can engage the important social issues facing us all. ... We'd like our speakers to help us think about how we develop curricula which are responsive to the social (and justice) issues.

WORSHIP LEADER: Robin Brown-Haithco (CPE Supervisor, Emory, Atlanta, GA)

WORKSHOP LEADERS: Kempton Haynes (Retired CPE Supervisor, Atlanta, GA) and Tom Summers (Retired CPE Supervisor, Columbia, SC) leading "History of CPE in Social Reconstruction." Robin Brown-Haithco and Eugene Robinson (CPE Supervisors, Emory, Atlanta) leading "Prophetic Voice of Howard Thurman" (focusing on his book Jesus and the Disinherited).
