SERACPE ANNUAL MEETING

EPWORTH BY THE SEA
ST. SIMON'S ISLAND, GA

OCTOBER 2-3, 2014

Make your plans to join us as we gather for our regional meeting for a time of work, worship, fellowship, and continuing education. The Continuing Education begins with worship at 1 p.m. on Thursday, October 2.

This year, our program features: Dr. Lisa R. Merriweather
Developing Polyrhythmic Sensibilities: Strategies for Pastoral Care

Session 1: Critical Race Theory - A Primer

Session 2: Microaggressions - Space & Place in Work

Session 3: In the words of Muhammed Ali: "Me, We" - Locating our Polyrhythms

Dr. Lisa R. Merriweather is an assistant professor at the University of North Carolina, Charlotte. She received her PhD in Adult Education with a graduate certificate in Qualitative Inquiry from the University of Georgia in 2004. Her research focuses on issues of equity and social justice within the historical discourse of adult education, informal education, and doctoral education.

She explores the philosophy and sociology of race and employs Africana Philosophy, Critical Race Theory, and qualitative and historical methodology to investigate topics found at the nexus of race and adult education.

She also operates 3D Consulting & Development through which she serves as an educational consult and public speaker specializing in diversity presentations, dissertation development consultations, and adult education design innovations and program evaluations for community, non-profit, academic, and corporate bodies.

SERACPE ANNUAL BANQUET THURSDAY, OCTOBER 2, 7 PM

In addition to presentations made by the SERACPE History Committee, our evening speaker will be Rev. Trace Haythorn, the new Executive Director of ACPE. Trace will be sharing with us his vision for our organization as well as how we are preparing for the future of ACPE.
